

The Main Partner of the Conference

The partnership provides companies with the opportunity to effectively solve corporate, marketing and communication problems among the target audience.

- Status of the General Partner of the IVth International Research and Practice Conference «Industrial Safety of Mineral Resources Enterprises in the XXIst Century»
- Welcoming speech at the opening and closing of the Conference
- Oral gratitude to the main partner during the opening and closing ceremonies of the conference
- Speech at the plenary session of the conference (one oral presentation)
- Opportunity of free organization of the roundtable discussion (workshop-presentation)
- Placement of the Main partner's advertising materials (banners) in the Conference hall
- Printing the main partner's logo at the cover page of the conference program
- Printing the main partner's color advertising module in the conference program (A4 format)
- Distribution of partner's promotional materials at the registration desk, promotional tables in the hall
- Placement of partner's advertising materials into folders of conference participants
- Providing the main partners with five invitations for participation in all activities of the conference and cocktail reception

The cost of this package – 350 000 rubles

For the conclusion of the partnership agreement should apply to the Organizing Committee